Sant'Agapito is an Italian town of 1.464 inhabitants in the province of Isernia in Molise. Sant'Agapito rises near the Matese massif. The territory of the municipality extends over a surface that covers both a mountain part (to the south) and a flat part (to the north). The altitude goes from about 350 m s.l.m. up to 1.100 m s.l.m. of the highest peak. The municipality is crossed by the river Lorda.

The municipal administration and the associations working in the common territory are very active to promote the tourist and economic relaunch of the country. In fact, many cultural initiatives have been promoted and many environmental protection initiatives have enabled projects to be presented for the creation of the river park and to identify cycle paths for sustainable mobility.
